Some interesting observations

Day of the Week Impact: The highest sales occur on Tuesday with a total of 42,684, significantly more than other days, indicating a possible trend of increased purchases on that day. In contrast, Saturday has the lowest sales at 10,053, suggesting that fewer purchases happen over the weekend.

Warehouse Sales Variation: The Комсомольская warehouse has the highest sales at 11.82K, while the lowest-performing warehouse, Строителей, has only 4.46K. This could indicate varying demand based on warehouse locations.

Product Demand: The top-selling products include "Корм для котят Whiskas" and "Туалетная бумага Zewa," showing a high demand for pet supplies and hygiene products. This trend could be leveraged for inventory planning.

Category Preference: The "Безалкогольные напитки" category accounts for 45.31% of total sales, showing a strong preference for non-alcoholic beverages. Other categories like "Молочная продукция" and "Мучные кондитерские изделия" follow, reflecting customer preferences that may be seasonally influenced.
